

Name: _____ Date: _____

Fractions, decimals and percentages

Two shops are having sales. Fill in the table to show the new price of each item in the sale.

| Item for sale                                                                       | Sale price at Bargain City | Sale price at Sale Centre |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------|
|   |                            |                           |
|  |                            |                           |
|  |                            |                           |
|  |                            |                           |

What two items did I buy if I spent £38.94?